CRITICAL RECEPTION

‘colourful, evocative and energetic’ – Kerryn Goldsworthy, Sydney Morning Herald, Spectrum

‘Kelly’s prose is gorgeous; reading this book is like studying a painting by a master or listening to a symphony.’ – Elizabeth Caulfield Felt, Historical Novel Review. Editor’s Choice.

‘It is uplifting to know that there are people who can write like this with clarity, a bit of devilment and a hint of a smile. Why can’t more people write like this?’ – Frank O’Shea, The Age

‘Kim Kelly’s spry and endearing period novella … offers an elegant tonic for grief.’ – Cameron Woodhead and Steven Carroll, Sydney Morning Herald/The Age.

‘Kelly’s book put me in mind almost immediately of Madeleine St John … [Her] evocation of 1920s Sydney is convincingly electric.’ – Bram Presser, A Book For Ants
